

FOR THE LOVE OF CHILDREN

A DAY OF ACTION: THE REAL FACE OF EQUITY

This student-centered event will amplify the unheard voices and unrecognized needs of Black, Latinx, and Queer students who comprise 63% of the public school population. Various state senators and representatives will participate. Sponsored by community-focused organizations.

STUDENTS: Here's your opportunity to speak up!

What do you want elected officials to know about your experience in school?

- High school students should register at the URL below to RSVP for the bus from their area.
- Students will convene by 11 am at Old First Presbyterian for an advocacy seminar.
- A buffet lunch will be served.
- Students will march in unison to the Capitol.
- Students will tour the House and Senate chambers and engage in Q&A with legislators.
- Students will visit legislator offices in small groups.
- Students riding buses will stop to have dinner on the way home.

REGISTER NOW: <http://bit.ly/fortheLoveofChildren>

Keynoter: James Cole, Cole and the Cure Host - NAACP Youth Advisor

Monday, February 24
FLORIDA CAPITOL

Celebrating Black History Month and Public School Week

realtalkfl.org
@FLRealTalkCoalition